Description

Juliette and her brother Martin are back from Grandpa's. Their family just moved into a new house. Neighbors are nowhere to be seen, but someone is digging a hole in their backyard...

A story for beginner and low intermediate students of French, with MP3 files, glossary, and English translation. The story is written mostly in present tense, with some past tense where needed for the story to flow naturally. The sentences are relatively simple, using everyday vocabulary.

Each chapter is accompanied by a list of the harder words and expressions to help you understand the text without the use of a dictionary. The complete English translation is included, so that you can double-check your understanding.

The audio recordings will help you practice listening comprehension and pronunciation. The link to download the MP3 files can be found at the end of the book.
